Reading the text below and do the activities that follow it.

A hundred years ago, tourism hardly existed. Very few people travelled abroad. Now, thanks to the twentieth century travel revolution, as well as longer holidays and bigger salaries, millions of people take at least one foreign trip a year. Why shouldn't they? After all, holidays are wonderful chance to relax have fun and explore new places. Plus of course they create new jobs and vital income for countries all over the world. Like many other beautiful counties. Côte d'Ivoire encourages foreigners to come and visit the country.

The north of the country offers wonderful opportunities for seeing the animals of Africa – Rhino, hippos, elephants, lions, buffaloes, crocodiles... to name just a few.

Or try the tropical rainforest of the south with its gorillas, monkeys and colorful birds.

You can choose from a huge range of activities: visit our beach resorts, play a coca plantation -40% of the world's chocolate comes from the Côte d'Ivoire.

Côte d'Ivoire has 515 Km of Atlantic coastline with clean, natural beaches and a war...

Ocean to swim in there are good hotels to stay at in Abidjan and San Pedro, and exciting opportunities for the sports fisherman.

Over 60 ethnic groups lie in Côte d'Ivoire, as varied as the land itself, with cultures that are still read and alive. Here are friendly people with fascinating traditions and folklor.

And don't forget that crafts, masks figures jewellery, handbags swords, mats-all made by craftsman – can be bought at reasonable prices.
