PLACE OF THE WOMEN IN THE SOCIETY

Far from being inferior , women are capable of sharing all the responsibilities of everyday life with men. Man and woman have been rightly compared to the two sides of the same coin , the wheels of the same carriage . The main responsibility of woman is to preserve the human race. Biology decrees that it is only the women who can bear and birth to children.

Then, as a mother, a woman’s role is unique: she brings up children with extreme and protective care . The first school of a good child is lap of his mother . Napoleon said: “ Give me good mothers and I will give you a good Nation”.

Educated women can do much to reform humanity . In modern age, women are brightly demonstrating their talents in all the field progress, they are serving as teachers, doctors, engineers, administrators and even heads of states. More education among women means more progress of society . Gender equality should be a concern for men.
