

ENGLISH TEST N°1

Read the text below and do all the activities that follow.

PART ONE : READING AND COMPREHENSION

The airport is a busy place. It is place where planes land and and also take off on the runway. When you go there, you first need to look at the departure board to find your airline ; second you go to the check in desk. For abroad flights, you are asked to present your passport, but for domestic flights an ID card is required. When you book your ticket, they give you a confirmation number. You should show this too, just in case. The airline agent will ask you if you want to check in luggage or if you only have carry-on luggage. You should check your large luggage, but you can carry smaller suitcases on the plane. After the agent gives you your boarding pass, you can go through security. Then you can go and board the plane. Today, there are several airline companies such as Ethiopian and Kenyan airlines in Africa. When you travel on their comfortable planes, stewards always take care of you. It is always pleasure to voyage by plane.
