

Use the verbs can, may, must in positive or negative forms:

---

---

Excuse me!  you speak French?

---

Alan isn't coming tonight. He  come tomorrow, I hope.

---

There's a lot of work to do in the house. You  help me!

---

You  call him anymore. I have already called him.

---

She is over there.  you see her?

---

I borrow your pen, please?

---

Teachers  beat children. It's forbidden.

---

I can hear some voices. Someone  be in the house.

---

We  eat sweets! We are on a diet.

---

You  buy it on Sunday if you want. The shops are open.

---

You  drive me to the station. I can walk.

---

We want to be the best. We  practise!

---

Make statements or questions :

---

I - ask - may - her  ?

---

he - not - cook - dinner - need  .

---

round - she - the corner - be - must  .

---

feel - it - they - can  ?

---

we - not - drink - must - milk  !

---

can - the - she - violin - play  ?

---

invite - he - may - us  .

---

wait - must - I - outside  ?

---

Jack - can - stay - not - there  .

---

must - swim - not - I  .

---

Choose the correct verb forms and complete the sentences:

clearshowcheck

---

On the plane: You need not/must not wear a seat belt all the time.

You  wear a seat belt all the time.

---

You must/must not revise English words if you want to speak English.

You  revise English words if you want to speak English.

---

You must not/need not take me to the station. I know the way.

You  take me to the station.

---

You need not/may not stop in front of my garage. I can't get out.

You  stop in front of my garage.

---

Is your telephone all right now? May/Can you hear me again?

you hear me again?

---

It must/cannot be Greg. Greg is much taller.

It  be Greg.

---

Be careful! You must not/need not fall over again.

You  fall over again.

---

Don't panic. You must/may pass the exam next time.

You  pass the exam next time.

---

I can't carry all this luggage on my own. You need not/must help me!

You  help me!

---

I don't want to go out now. I may/must dust the furniture first.

I  dust the furniture first.